

University of Reading Personal Statement Workshops

If you are applying to university through UCAS, but don't know where to start with your personal statement, we're here to help!

Date: Thursdays, from 24th Sept

Time: 3:30pm

Through looking at examples, hearing from Admissions Tutors and exploring common pitfalls, we hope that after these 4 sessions you will have a persuasive and well thought-through personal statement that you can be proud of.

24th Sept - Session 1:

- What to expect at university and introduce the University of Reading
- Explore what skills you need for university and how to get there.

1st Oct - Session 2:

- The role of the admissions tutor and what they're hoping to find in student applications
- Develop understanding of how to create a powerful introduction

8th Oct - Sessions 3:

- Introduce what an 'ABC' paragraph is and evaluate this as a tool for Personal Statement writing
- Explore different ways to conclude a Personal Statement

15th Oct - Session 4:

- Explore 'final touches' and getting rid of the 'waffle'.
- Looking forwards at what happens next in the application process.

Throughout the series you will also be able to chat with current students and the staff running the workshop through UniBuddy. Specific details available after sign up.
