Job Description

Lecturer in Electrical Engineering

As a Lecturer you will teach effectively on a range of courses and at a range of levels as agreed with your line manager. You will support learners to achieve successful outcomes and participate in retention and recruitment activities as appropriate. You would set high expectations for learners and contribute to an environment that encourages all learners to be aspirational.

Key Duties

Key Duties & Responsibilities:

- Prepare appropriate teaching, learning and assessment materials
- Effectively plan to meet the needs of all learners
- Refer learners for specialist support where appropriate
- Ensure the planning, delivery and management of teaching and learning complies with the Quality Assurance System (as varied from time to time)
- Establish and implement effective classroom management
- Actively participate in quality improvement activities
- Act as course tutor if required, with responsibility for monitoring and controlling the quality of a course or group of courses.

Contributing to a high performing college:

- Monitor attendance, punctuality and behaviour and provide challenge learners where learners fall short of expectations
- Set and monitor targets with individual learners through the tutorial process and use the college tracking system to record learner progress
- Encourage and stimulate sound study habits and ensure learners are aware of the purpose and process of assessment
- Provide learners with structured, detailed and constructive feedback (both oral and written) within agreed timescales
- Accurately record results of learner assessments as appropriate to your role
- Use digital learning environments to support delivery as appropriate
- Undertake internal verification duties as appropriate to your role

Key Duties

Key relationships:

- Prioritise the operational workload in agreement with your line manager
- Effectively work with other course team members to develop courses as appropriate to meet the needs of learners and the region
- Work with the teacher and learning mentors as appropriate to ensure that modern and high standards of teaching and learning are developed and maintained
- Participate in open days and parents' evenings and liaise with parents / guardians as appropriate
- Liaise effectively with employers, careers agencies, universities, awarding bodies and other stakeholders as appropriate and participate in marketing and promotional activities.

Additional Duties

- Follow the Staff Code of Conduct.
- Actively comply with all college policies.
- Participate in and contribute to the college performance management and review process, achieve a minimum of 30 hours CPD per year and attend all compulsory CPD as directed

Further Information

All staff employed at Coleg y Cymoedd will have responsibility for the safeguarding and for promoting the welfare of students. Undertake such other duties as may be reasonably required by the College, either at your principal

It is recognised that duties and responsibilities of all posts may change from time to time and job descriptions may be amended in consultation with the post holder to reflect those changes which are commensurate with the role.

Terms & Conditions

Equality & Diversity

We recognise the benefits of a diverse workforce we consider ourselves to be an employer of choice and are committed to eradicating discrimination in the workplace.

Criminal Convictions

All education establishments in the UK are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. In practice this means that all applicants must inform the college of any spent and unspent convictions on their application form and when completing a Disclosure and Barring form. Failure to provide this information may result in dismissal. A list 99 check is also obtained on anyone who will be working with or coming into contact with learners and must be received by the college before employment can commence.

Data Protection

Any data about you will be held securely, with access restricted to those involved in dealing with your application in the selection process. By signing and submitting your application form you are giving consent to the processing of your data.

Right To Work In The UK

Section 8 of the Asylum and Immigration Act 2008 makes it a criminal offence for an employer to take on a new employee whose immigration status prevents the employee from taking up employment. If you are invited to attend an interview you will be asked to produce original and up to date documentary evidence of your right to work in the UK.
